

Office Assistant

Position description

Our growing organisation needs a part-time, reliable, organised Office Assistant to manage the day-to-day administrative aspects of running the office. The successful applicant will have a positive attitude, work efficiently, and have excellent communication skills.

This role will allow you to learn everything that goes into supporting a dynamic team of lawyers, campaigners, and communications and fundraising staff. You will be an essential part of helping our lawyers protect the environment and combat climate change.

This is an ongoing role at 0.6FTE (3 days a week).

We are looking for attention to detail and accuracy, and someone who can problem-solve and work on their own initiative, while being part of a collaborative team. If you are passionate about the environment and environmental justice, we'd love to have you join the team.

Environmental Justice Australia is an equal opportunity employer. Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people, women, people from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds, LGBTQI people and people with a disability are encouraged to apply.

We will assess applications and interview as they come in so do not delay, apply now!

About us

Environmental Justice Australia is a leading public interest legal organisation. Our lawyers act on behalf of people and community organisations to safeguard health; protect magnificent forests, rivers and wildlife; and tackle the climate crisis. We partner with communities and other social justice organisations because we are stronger together.

Using innovative approaches, we find the best legal solutions to climate and environment issues. Our team works inside and outside the courtroom to make the system fair and just for all. We work on issues and in areas of Australia where we can have the most impact.

Values

Collaboration: We work in partnership with community and other organisations because we are in this together

Respect: We treat everyone with respect, and we value different perspectives as we know we can learn something from everyone

Ambition: We aim high and are at all times focused on achieving maximum impact for nature, climate and communities

Positivity: We maintain hope and a positive approach because we believe we can change the world

Justice: We are driven by our sense of justice – it's at the core of everything we do.

Responsibilities

The Office Assistant is a critical member of the team. Reporting to the Chief Operating Officer, this role will include:

- Handling incoming calls and other communications
- Greeting clients and visitors
- Helping organise and maintain office common areas
- Performing general office duties and errands, including collecting and processing mail, keeping the kitchen clean, and stocked with essentials
- Supporting staff in booking, catering, setup and running EJA events and travel as necessary
- Maintaining stationery inventory and general office supplies
- Supporting with financial tasks including physical banking, managing petty cash and reimbursements
- Ensuring office equipment is properly maintained and serviced
- Other duties as directed by the Co-CEOs, the COO or other members of the Operations team.

Selection criteria

These are the criteria we think are most critical to success in this role. If your experience is a little different and you still think you are the right person for this job, please apply - we would love to hear from you.
